

You are woken up at 3:30 AM by a bright light shining through your window

Run to the window to see what the light is

Go to wake up the rest of your family

You see a space ship on your lawn, with two figures and what appears to be your brother.

You run to your parents room to tell them

Climb out the window to get a better view.

Climb out the window after them

You enter your parents' room to see two small figures climbing out the window with your younger brother

Wake up your parents

Your parents do not believe you. They tell you to go back to sleep

Go back to your bed and figure it must have been a car

Go downstairs and outside to get a better view

You go back to sleep but you have let them get away with your brother. You lose.

You throw a rock at the window, shattering it. You can see a dimly lit interior with no one inside

You climb down the wall and follow the two figures around the corner towards their ship.

Sneak to the ship and lie on the top

You wake them up, and they decide to help you search

You and your parents head outside but you are too late. No sign

You see that it is in fact your brother. You see them board the ship.

The two figures notice you and advance. Your brother runs inside, safe, you run in with him. you

You see two aliens inside the ship, with your brother.

You yell, hoping to distract the aliens

You sneak on and start to fight the

You decide to call for help

You kick in the roof and fall through the opening, landing on the aliens. You and your brother run home. Win

They look up at you and shoot you with a laser gun. You die.

You defeat them and your brother is safe.

Well you are calling for help, the ship takes off. You lose.
